BEST APPROACH

How to get the most out of this booklet.

Before we begin, it is important to emphasize that gaining scriptural knowledge in itself, though important, is not enough to change character. Putting biblical knowledge into practice is the key that teaches truth and the power of God, which in turn changes hearts and lives. (John 8:31-32). The study is structured in a way that you will write out the scriptures yourselves for the purposes of deeper reflection.

Ordinary disciple

Here are some key points on how to get the most out of the booklet:

- Mentorship Study Approach This was developed as a mentorship study approach. Please contact us if you struggle to find a mentor that is equipped to support you on your journey with this series. We host many online sessions and are eager to support you on your journey.
- Pray Always pray when you participate in this series so that you invite God through his Holy Spirit to open your mind and heart.
- Read the Scriptures It is essential for you to use the Bible to read the scriptures before answering the questions (Rom 10:17).
- Your Opinion doesn't count Always find the answer from the Bible, although you might think you know the answer. You are responsible for protecting yourself from false teachings and religious opinions, so take good care.
 Scripture's Answer Count Complete all the answers in the booklet based on the actual Scripture. Usually, the answers
- Scripture's Answer Count Complete all the answers in the booklet based on the actual Scripture. Usually, the answers are simple, but often the challenge is putting it into practice.
- Be Vulnerable Be very honest with yourself, even if it hurts. The saying "no pain, no gain" is relevant in this context.
- Memory Verse Always have a memory verse you are working on. This helps our minds to focus on God and his will.
- Share Share your journey with a friend, and never be discouraged. God loves us, and his patients endure forever.

Reflection

Pray together about your transformation.

What did you learn in your last session and were able to put into practice?

With what did you struggle to put into practice?

What can you keep on doing or change to grow?

Are you getting out of this training project what you want? Why? Why not?

Add the heading "MAT 17:24-27- HOUSE ON THE ROCK"

Drawing Instructions:

Draw two houses: one on a rock and the other on sand.

(Students will draw two houses, one on a solid foundation of rock, and the other on shifting sand.)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS:

What does the house represent?

Drawing Instructions:

What are the streams and winds?

Draw wind and waves coming in from the side to represent "Troubles of Life". (Students will draw wind and waves around the houses to symbolize life's trials.)

Who are guaranteed that there will be troubles and challenges of life?

We are all promised trouble in life, both believers and unbelievers.

What is the meaning of "the great crash"?

What does the house on the rock represent?

What does the house on the sand represent? (See verse 26)

Is the rock only Jesus? Is there anything more? (See verse 24)

Drawing Instructions:

On the rock, add a Cross to represent Jesus and plus signs that represent "Putting into practice."

(Students will add a cross symbol on the rock to represent Jesus, and plus signs around it to symbolize actions taken in obedience.)

HEART QUESTIONS:

Do you believe all Scripture is God-inspired?

Reflect on how your view of Scripture impacts your daily life. Believing that all Scripture is inspired by God means valuing the Bible as authoritative and trustworthy for guidance and decision-making.

Are you willing to hear (read your Bible) and put it into practice (obey)?

Consider your daily habits and commitment to living out what you learn in Scripture.

Are there areas in your life where you know what the Bible says, but you struggle to act on it? What specific practices can you commit to putting into action this week?

Set a personal goal to apply a particular teaching from Jesus in a practical way, whether it's loving your neighbour, forgiving someone, or trusting God in a difficult situation.

MY JOURNEY

Over three decades ago, a man walked into my life, carrying a Bible in his hand. At that point, traditional church services didn't quite reach my heart. There were just too many issues within the church for me to take them seriously. Some of our pastors were living immoral lives, with some struggling with drinking problems, and others involved in disturbing activities. What's more, there was this awful segregation where black people were not allowed to attend the white Sunday services.

Before this encounter, I had been on a quest to find the true meaning of life. I explored it through intellectual conversations, dabbled in politics, and even delved into various religious beliefs. I indulged myself in worldly pleasures, seeking escape from reality through fun, drinking, and the pursuit of wealth. However, none of these pursuits seemed to satisfy the deep yearnings within me.

But everything changed when I found myself standing in front of God's Word, as if I were gazing into a mirror. It was a moment of profound transformation. As I stared at my reflection in that metaphorical mirror, I saw a shattered image of myself, utterly exposed before the all-powerful God.

I invite you to delve deeper into my journey and the valuable life lessons I've learned in the booklet below.

MEMORY VERSE

Don't try and learn all the memory verses at once but only select one or two verses each week. Go at a pace that doesn't add too much pressure on yourself and others. You will find new meaning to the Scriptures you memorize.

Heb 4:12 For the Word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. 13 Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

1Ti 4:16 Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Mk 7:8 You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men." 9 And he said to them: "You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions!

Joh 12:47 "As for the person who hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it. 48 There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; that very Word which I spoke will condemn him at the last day. 49 For I did not speak of my own accord, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and how to say it. 50 I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say."

Mat 7:21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?' 23 Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

Act 17:10 As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. On arriving there, they went to the Jewish synagogue. 11 Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true. 12 Many of the Jews believed, as did also a number of prominent Greek women and many Greek men.
