BEST APPROACH

Before we begin, it is essential to emphasise that gaining scriptural knowledge in itself, though important, is not enough to change character. Putting biblical knowledge into practice is the key that teaches truth and the power of God, which in turn changes hearts and lives. (John 8:31-32). The study is structured in a way that you will write out the scriptures yourselves for the purposes of deeper reflection.

Here are some key points on how to get the most out of the booklet:

- This was developed for an intimate study approach. Find a mentor that has already completed this series to facilitate your journey. You will get much more out of the series that way.
- Read the scriptures before answering the questions (really important)! . In this way, you will learn to know the Word of God.
- Always find the answer from the Bible. Although you might think you know the answer, first find the answer in the Bible.
- Complete all the answers in the booklet.
- Be very honest with yourself, even if it hurts.
- Always have a memory verse you are working on.
- It is a good idea to share what you are learning with a friend.

REFLECTION

What did you learn in your last session and were able to put into practice?

With what did you struggle to put into practice?

---

What can you keep on doing or change to grow?

Are you getting out of this training project what you want? Why? Why not?

My Story

I made the video below about ten years ago, so excuse me; this was one of my first videos.

 YouTube <https://www.jesusdust.org/toughstart>

Discovering God's Holiness, Grace, and the Gravity of Sin: A Journey of Transformation

Throughout my life, I lacked a true understanding of God's holiness, the weight of sin, and the concept of grace. Consequently, I often presented myself in a favorable light, masking the reality of my imperfections. I indulged in mischievousness during my youth, was violent during adolescence, and held onto self-righteousness.

As I reached the age of 26, I had accumulated a staggering amount of sin without truly grasping its nature, severity, and far-reaching consequences. It bewildered me how I could engage in actions that potentially led to imprisonment, yet feel little conviction or remorse about them. Perhaps I found solace in comparing my sins to others', seeking to make myself appear righteous in contrast. But even as a gross sinner, I struggled to acknowledge my wrongdoings, leaving me to wonder how those who perceive themselves as perfect could ever confront their own sins. How far must one sink into sin before being shaken into remorse?

The revelation of my true self came when a friend compassionately shared Galatians 5:19-21 with me. As I carefully evaluated my life against each listed sin, I saw a vivid reflection of my past and present transgressions. A YouTube video further illustrated the reality of my actions.

On the other hand, my wife appeared to live a virtuous life, seemingly untouched by obvious wrongdoings. Galatians 5 did not resonate with her heart. It took her years to recognize the subtle wickedness hidden within her. Second Timothy 3:1-3 spoke deeply to her soul.

Through scripture, I learned that God, in His loving mercy, uses the Spirit to reveal our true selves when we are open to receiving His correction (Hebrews 4:12-13). I now implore you, for your own sake, to stop resisting God and surrender to a life-changing encounter with Him. This decision will be one you will never regret. Embrace humility and relentlessly pursue cleansing your inner self.

Engaging in the "sin study" set my life on a new trajectory, and for this, I praise God! Although the journey was challenging, it brought about transformative changes within me.

May this revelation inspire you to embark on your own journey of self-discovery and encounter God's holiness and grace. Embrace the transformation that awaits as you confront your flaws with humility and open your heart to His redemptive love.

Obvious Sin

Gal 5:19-23 The acts of the flesh are obvious ...read all

Go through the table below and, work through the practice and then return to these questions.

For whom was this written? (Unbelievers or believers)

What does it mean “to live like this”?

What do you think will happen to those who live like this?

In this study, trust and confidentiality are essential. As you may choose to share personal experiences or struggles, we ask that all members commit to treating these stories with sensitivity and respect. What is shared in this group stays in this group. To express your commitment, take a moment at the start of each session to say aloud as a group: “We commit to honoring and protecting each other’s trust.” This simple practice helps create a safe environment where everyone feels supported and encouraged to be open, fostering growth and healing.

Visualise Obvious Sin

As mentor:

- Explain the definition of each obvious sin from the "Obvious Sin Table," match it to pictures, and if possible, share an example of how you struggled or are still struggling with that sin. You could either use the table to assess your current standing or print out the picture to use the DOT method to evaluate yourself.

Mentorship is all about leading by example!

DRAWING INSTRUCTIONS:

Print out the picture for "OBVIOUS SIN."

As a student and mentor:

-  Mark the pictures with a dot if you have done that sin in your life. Share your struggle with one another.
-  Make a second dot on the picture if you recently struggled with that sin or are likely to do so again, if the situation arises in the near future.
- Count the number of coloured dots on the pictures in your life.

Otherwise

- If you cannot relate to the definitions of obvious sins from the "Obvious Sin Table", use the "Unobvious Table."

Don't share your booklet with the class, but keep it private, use it to confess your sins, and pray to God for assistance. Involve spiritual people to assist you on your journey.

Do you recognise anything in your life on this list?

Do you have habitual sin that causes you to "live like this"? If "Yes," what can you do about it?

SIN

As teacher explain the definition of each of the sins listed in the passage and how you sinned or were tempted by each sin. Being vulnerable will help your student to be open with their lives towards you.

Note: Do not get involved in arguments about salvation. Leave it for every person to discover themselves.

Place the keywords from the Scripture on either side, the Light or the Darkness using the diagram below. List how God differentiate between to two sides.
How do you recognise a priest?

How do you recognise someone that declare God's praises?

How do you know when you received mercy?

Is there a grey area between light and darkness?

Where could one be at any time? Can you be in a transition state where you are not lost or not saved? Do we have an exact date and time when we are saved?

Light	Darkness
Chosen people Royal priesthood Holy nation People belonging to God Received mercy Declare the praises of God	Unlikely Not the people No mercy

What would keep us in the darkness?

Search and Read NT scriptures with the word “save” in it?

Where are you at today? Darkness or in the light? Are you at risk of the darkness?

Do you know what Scripture teaches about how to get into the light?

This link can take you to a table with all the saved words in the New Testament:

It is important to be very honest with yourself. Don't assume that you are saved if you are not sure. We all want to be saved, but we need to follow God's process. You cannot wait to find out if you are saved when you stand in front of God. It will be too late! That is why God gives you life and the time to figure it out!

Visualise Light and Darkness

On the left draw a sun and on the right dark clouds at the top and SIN in a fire at the bottom. Draw a distinct line between the two sides.

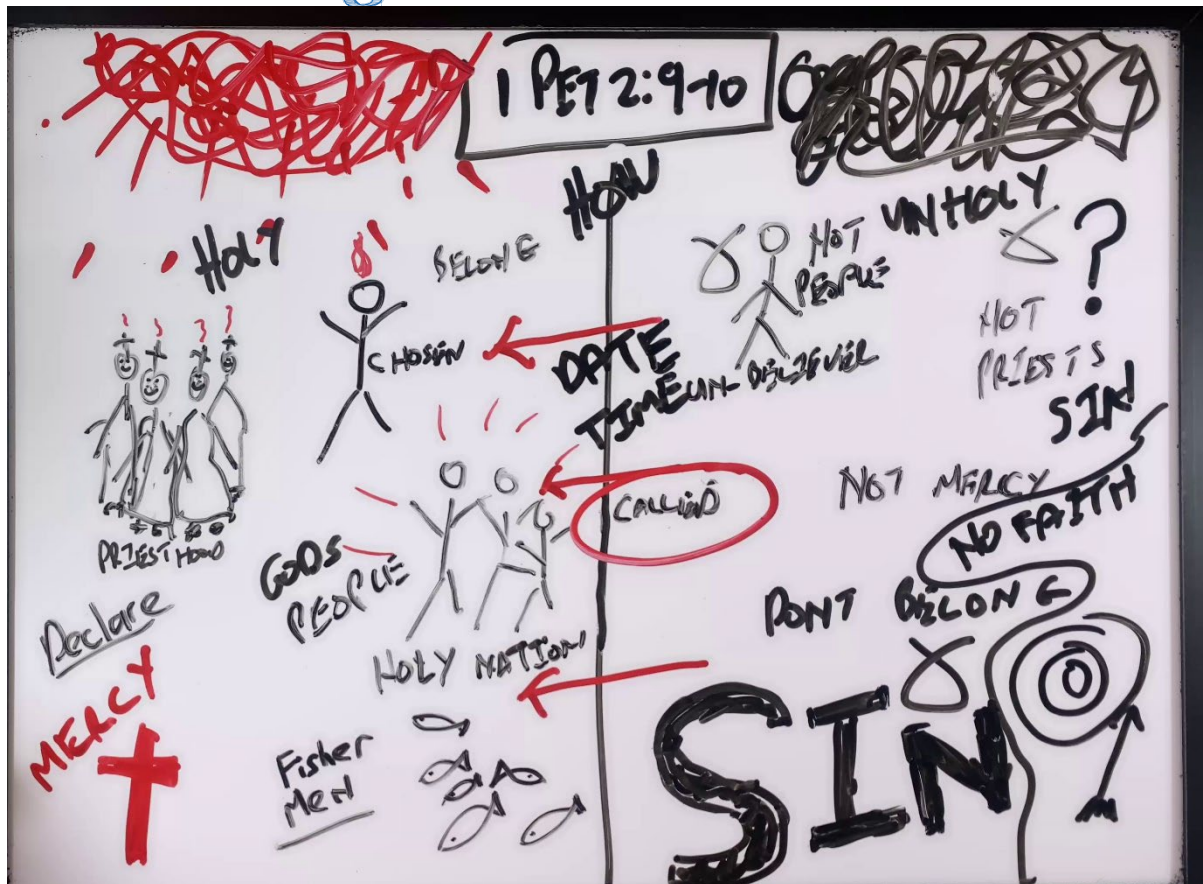

Draw the images to represent the items.

LIGHT (LEFT SIDE)	DARKNESS (RIGHT SIDE)
Lost of stickmen (chosen people)	Lost of stickmen crossed out (not a people)
Add a cross on top of the stickmen's heads (royal priesthood)	(not royal priesthood)
Add halos on top of the group (holy nation)	(not holy nation)
Add a scroll with names on it (people belonging to God)	Add a scroll with names on it that are crossed out (not people belonging to God) (people belonging to God)
Add voices that shout a message/ draw fish (declare the praises/ fisher of men)	(not declare the praises)
Add a cross with the blood of Christ Jesus (received mercy)	(not received mercy)

Write a distinct date and time on the line if you were saved. You will be comparing your salvation story with the scriptures in this study. We will do that so that you can help others to ensure that you are saved according to God's plan.

Visualise My Lifeline

Ask your student to draw his own lifeline on a piece of paper.

Why are we doing the lifeline? This is an opportunity to get clarity on your journey before God and compare and align your life with what God is teaching in his Word. Remember, this is a journey, and God is working in your life.

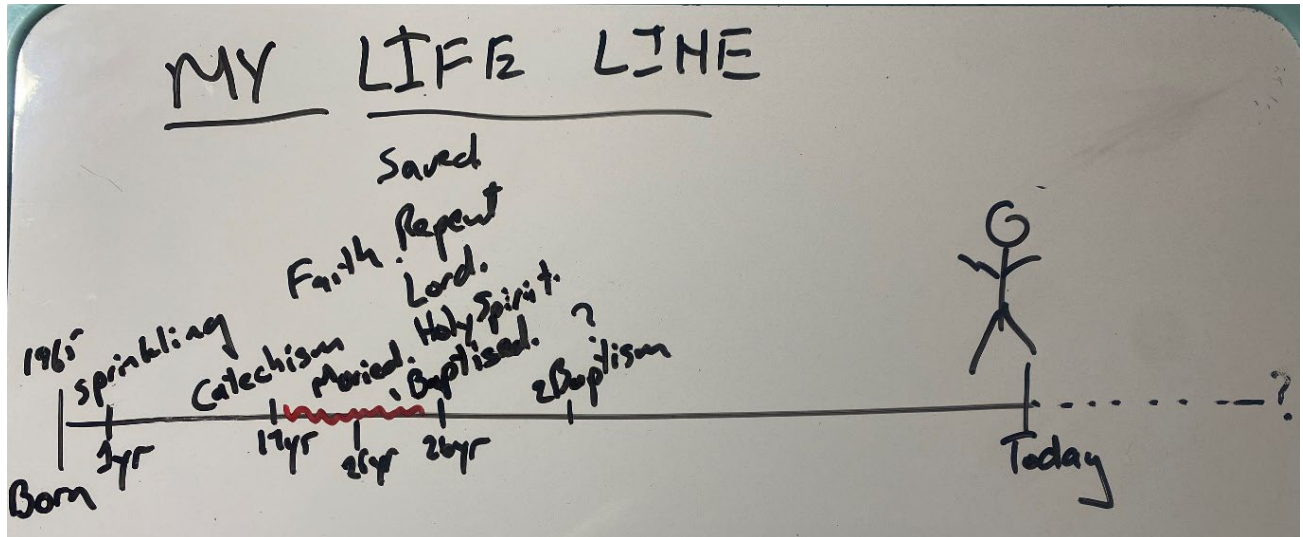

We found that many people are still not saved when we have done the sin study, while others have false hope in religious ceremonies or received false teachings about salvation, or they are very confused.

SIN

As a mentor: Draw your lifeline for the student and talk about your journey to find God. Don't get involved in discussions or discussions about salvation. Leave it up to everyone to discover themselves.

Here is a list of typic experiences/ events that are associated with salvation:

- |  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| • Date of birth                                | • Infant baptism  | • Confirmation                                      |
| • Catechism exam                               | • Bible class   | • Dream/ Vision                                     |
| • A spiritual encounter                        | • Near-death experience                                     | • Believe Jesus is real (coming to the basic faith) |
| • Stop sinning (drinking, etc.)                | • Married   | • A prayer  |
| • Church appointment of elder, deacon or other | • Making Jesus Lord of your life                            | • Laying on of hands                                |
| • Baptized in water                            | • Received Holy Spirit                                      | • Receive a miraculous gift                         |
| • Speaking in tongues                          | • Miraculous healing  | • Coming to full faith                              |
| • Death  | • Believing in my heart that God raised Jesus from the dead | • Repentance  |
| • confessing him with my mouth                 | • Today   | • Your point of salvation (date/ time)              |

Draw your lifeline and keep this as a reference as we study the scriptures.

Your journey is personal between you and God and needs to match God's plan of salvation for your life.

INTO PRACTICE – WEEKLY ACCOUNTABILITY

The knowledge acquired is worthless and only puffs us up if we don't put it into practice.

1Co 8:1 We know that "We all possess knowledge." But knowledge puffs up while love builds up.

Make three goals for the next week based on what you have learned today.

Goal 1: _____

Goal 2: _____

Goal 3: _____

ACHIEVED Outcomes

- ☐ Understanding obvious and subtle sins
- ☐ Understanding what religious works is
- ☐ Identifying the works God require from us
- ☐ Purifying our lives before God
- ☐ Living a life in harmony with God and ourselves

MEMORY VERSE

Don't try and learn all the memory verses at once but only select two or three verses each week. Go at a pace that doesn't add too much pressure on yourself and others. You will find new meaning in the scriptures you memorise.

Act 2:36 "Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ." 37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"	2Ti 3:1 But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. 2 People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, 3 without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, 4 treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—5 having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them.	Gal 5:19 The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; 20 idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions 21 and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God.
Gal 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.	Rev 21:8 But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death."	Jas 4:17 Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins.
Jas 4:17 If anyone, then, knows the good they ought to do and doesn't do it, it is sin for them.

NEXT

This may have been hard! Well done! You've completed the SIN study on the topic of repentance.

Next, we'll explore the topic "Repentance – Jesus Christ." If I had to choose the most important study in the study series, it would be this study. Make sure you are in an undistracted setting before you start this study. This study encapsulates God's attitude towards sin, His holiness and how he will our (your) with sin.

We hope you found a friend to join you in your studies. If you did not, we want to encourage you to keep looking. Pray about who you can ask to join you in this study and see how God will answer your prayer.

Remember, you can always reach out to us, as we are committed to helping you on your journey. We host online training groups, but you can even start a local group. If you do start a group, let us know so we can refer others to join you!

We love receiving feedback from you, which will help us improve our material and provide us with information on its use. It is always encouraging to see how God uses our work to equip others and spread the gospel everywhere.
