Before we begin it is important to emphasize that gaining scriptural knowledge in itself, though important, is not enough to change our characters. Putting biblical knowledge into practice is the key, that teaches truth, and the power of God changes hearts and lives. (John 8:31-32).

1. REFLECTION

2. METAMELLOMAI

The Greek word “METAMELLOMAI” (μεταμέλλομαι) is a compound word derived from two root words:

1. “META” (μετά) - This prefix commonly means “after” or “change” in Greek.
2. “MELLOMAI” (μέλλω) - This verb usually denotes “to be about to” or “to intend” in Greek.

When combined, “METAMELLOMAI” conveys the idea of “to care afterwards,” “to regret,” or “to feel remorse” in the sense of a change in one’s mind or intentions after an action has been taken. It is often used to describe a sense of sorrow or regret over past actions or decisions. This word appears six times in the New Testament and is related to the concept of repentance and a change of heart or mind.

The use of the word “METAMELLOMAI” can be seen on context of the scripture below:

2Co 7:8 For <sup>G3754</sup> though <sup>G1499</sup> I made you sorry <sup>G3076 G5209</sup> with <sup>G1722</sup> a letter, <sup>G1992</sup> I do not <sup>G3756</sup> repent, <sup>G3338</sup> though <sup>G1499</sup> I did repent: <sup>G3338</sup> for <sup>G1063</sup> I perceive <sup>G991</sup> that <sup>G3754</sup> the <sup>G3588</sup> same <sup>G1565</sup> epistle <sup>G1992</sup> hath made you sorry, <sup>G3076 G5209</sup> though <sup>G1499</sup> it were but for <sup>G4314</sup> a season. <sup>G5610</sup>

Sometimes, we need to give others permission to speak into our lives—especially to point out the things we are blind to. The Corinthian church gave Paul that permission, and though his rebuke caused them sorrow, it led to godly repentance and healing.

♥ Are you willing to give people close to you permission to rebuke you when you are caught in sin?

👉 Speak with a trusted friend or family member and ask them to help keep you accountable in living a godly life. Godly sorrow may involve deep emotion, but it always leads to changed action and a desire to do what is right.

10. ACHIEVED OUTCOMES

- ☐ Understanding repentance as far as sin is concerned
- ☐ Know the difference between Godly and Worldly sorrow
- ☐ Testing our own repentance against the Word of God

11. MEMORY VERSE

Don't try and learn all the memory verses at once but only select two or three verses each week. Go at a pace that doesn't add too much pressure on yourself and others. You will find new meaning in the scriptures you memorise.

Mar 1:15 "The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!"	Luk 13:3 I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.	Act 26:20 First to those in Damascus, then to those in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and then to the Gentiles, I preached that they should repent and turn to God and demonstrate their repentance by their deeds.
2Co 7:10 Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death. 11 See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what concern, what readiness to see justice done. At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter.	Jas 1:12 Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him. 13 When tempted, no one should say, "God is tempting me." For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone;

12. NEXT

👉 Congratulations on completing the study on Repentance – Godly Sorrow. You've taken an important step toward understanding the kind of sorrow that leads to lasting change and salvation. Godly sorrow isn't about emotional regret—it's about transformation. It awakens action, produces zeal, and restores our relationship with God.

In this study, you learned how to test your own heart and recognize the difference between true repentance and worldly sadness that leads to death. You now have the tools to examine your response to sin, understand temptation, and take responsibility for your choices. Don't stop here—continue to practice repentance and grow in righteousness.

👉 In the next booklet, we'll examine false doctrines that distort the truth about repentance and Jesus Christ. Many believers are misled into thinking that repentance is optional, that sin doesn't separate, or that there are other mediators besides Jesus. These teachings can slowly undermine the very foundation of our salvation. But Scripture warns us clearly about deception in the last days.

📖 Together, we will expose these false teachings and reinforce what the Bible says about Jesus as the only mediator, the call to stop sinning, and the importance of sound doctrine. This next section is vital for those who want to stand firm in the truth and avoid the spiritual dangers of error.

🔥 Get ready to grow even deeper in your faith as we sharpen our discernment in 1.6 REPENTANCE – FALSE DOCTRINE.

Let the Word of God be your standard—always.

As you move forward, remember to track your progress and use the enrolment card to mark your achievements. We look forward to walking with you on this next step of discovering the profound and life-changing concept of God's grace. JesusDust Syllabus Master PDF
