♥ Before we begin, it is important to emphasise that gaining scriptural knowledge in itself, though necessary, is not enough to change character. Putting biblical knowledge into practice is the key, as it teaches truth and the power of God, which in turn changes hearts and lives. (John 8:31-32). The study is structured in a way that you will write out the scriptures yourselves for the purposes of deeper reflection. Here are some key points on how to get the most out of the booklet:

- Read the scriptures before answering the questions (fundamental)! This is how you will learn to know the word of God.
- Always find the answer from the Bible. Although you might think you know the answer, first find the answer in the Bible.

- Complete all the answers in the booklet.
- Be very honest with yourself, even if it hurts.
- Always have a memory verse you are working on.
- Sharing what you are learning with a friend is a good idea.

6. INTO PRACTICE

6.1. WEEKLY ACCOUNTABILITY

Now that you've learned about eternal rewards, it's essential to think about how you are applying these teachings to your daily life. As the Scripture says in 1 Corinthians 8:1, knowledge by itself isn't enough—true growth comes through love and action. Reflect on the following:

- Are you living as if you will be receiving a reward from God?
- Have you taught believers and non-believers about Eternal Judgement - Reward?

6.2. KEY OUTCOME

Take a moment to reflect on what you've learned about God's promises and eternal rewards. How does this understanding change the way you live your life today?

Test yourself and see if you achieved this study's key objective.

- ☐ Understand the importance of Eternal Judgement for Reward
- ☐ Faith and trust in who will be the Judge.
- ☐ Excitement and deep Appreciation of God's plan through Jesus Christ
- ☐ Equipped to teach the reward to others.

6.3. MEMORY VERSE

Don't try and learn all the memory verses at once, but only select one or two verses each week. Go at a pace that doesn't add too much pressure on yourself and others. You will find new meaning of the scriptures you memorise.

Joh 14:1 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. 4 You know the way to the place where I am going."	Eph 3:19 And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, 18 may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, 19 and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.	Rev 21:3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

6.4. NEXT

Congratulations on completing the study on Eternal Judgment – Reward! I hope this lesson has deepened your excitement about heaven and inspired you to share this incredible truth with others. Understanding the rewards that await us strengthens our hope and motivates us to serve God faithfully.

In the next session, we will explore the topic "Eternal Judgment – Punishment." This is a challenging but important study. While God desires to lead us with love, there are times when we must understand the consequences of rejecting His Word. The early church included the teaching of judgment as part of the gospel, and so must we. Let your heart be filled with joyful anticipation as you continue to walk with Jesus. Your labour in the Lord is not in vain (1Co 15:58)

We encourage you to share what you've learned about Eternal Rewards with a friend or a group. Consider starting a local or online group to discuss these teachings. If you decide to start a group, let us know so we can refer others to join you!
